DISCOVERY PRESENTS TWO COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wyomissing, PA—AUGUST 10, 2009

Discovery Federal Credit Union recently honored two graduating high school seniors with a $1,000 college scholarship. Applicants were required to write a 300-word essay describing what the credit union difference means to them, in addition to two letters of recommendation.

Scholarship recipients chosen by Discovery's Scholarship Awards committee were Ciera Kalnoski of Reading, PA and Kyle Lincoln of Mohrsville, PA. Kalnoski was the Valedictorian of her class at Reading High School and will be attending Lebanon Valley College. Lincoln, an avid swimmer that overcame the upset of a shattered elbow his senior year, will be attending Allegheny College.

"Presenting our graduating seniors with an opportunity to receive a college scholarship from Discovery reinforces our dedication to today's youth," said Ed Williams, President | CEO – Discovery Federal Credit Union. "It was with great honor and pleasure to award both Ciera and Kyle with their scholarships."
